This issue was delayed for a couple reasons. First, my grandmother was taken to University Hospitals for emergency bypass surgery. She's doing fine, but recovering slowly. Our house has resembled Grand Central Station the past week, though, as my parents and others have been staying here. The second reason affects you directly. We have been having mail problems. Our mailbox is in a curbside cluster on 35th St, not 4th Ave. There's another cluster closer to our house, and we suspect this causes confusion whenever a substitute carrier has our mail. Some mail has been returned to sender, some arrives 3 weeks late, some disappears. The problem is sporadic; please protect yourselves by sending in duplicate copies of your orders. Meanwhile we'll work on it on this end, it was the USPS that placed our box so far from our house to begin with.

RUSSIA-FRANCE: As you can tell, I've been voting for two-way draws as well as concessions. See my press releases for Spring 1908 and Fall 1908, and recall how you voted then.
FRANCE-TURKEY: Why won't you vote for the concession and give Russia the win he deserves?
